Newsletter- Friday 29th November

As we welcome in December next week, we're excited to have our annual Christmas Tree Walk on Monday! It's a busy time of year, and we truly appreciate your ongoing support. Join us in celebrating the festive season and making memories together. Let the festivities begin!

Warm Wishes

Nicola Locker and the St Chad's team

What a success our Come and Explore days have been.

A huge thank you to Miss Challenor, Mrs Harding, Mrs Stamper, Mrs McGivern, Miss Fowles, and Mrs Tegin for organising and delivering such a fantastic Forest school experience! It was brilliant to see the children showcasing their skills and enjoying the unique opportunities the area has to offer. Thank you to all who came and explored!

Christmas Tree Walk

Monday

Please come to school in Forest School Kits and Wellies. Bring in a spare pair of shoes and socks for the afternoon.

We will be back by lunchtime. Nursery children will be back at 11:30 (ish) as there might be a special visitor to say hello!

Father Jeremy led a Collective Worship about Advent and comparing life now to 2000 years ago.

Our Prayer Space has been set up ready for Advent with Christmas scents to smell as we write prayers about Christmas and say what we are thankful for this time of year.

'Thankful for the time with our family' Sophie-Lily
