Newsletter- Friday 12th July 2024

Dear Parents/Carers

What a jam-packed week at St. Chad's! We started with a focus on well-being with our annual Well-Being day, followed by the Welsh Jamboree, where everyone belted out their favourite Welsh songs to then dancing to their favourite songs at the exciting school disco! Learning more about our Church at our Know your Church workshop, with a special treat for class 4.

The week concluded in a beautiful Year 6 Leavers' service. The service featured a touching "St. Chad's Alphabet of Memories" and adorable photos of our leavers. Father Jeremy blessed the Year 6 students for their journey ahead, and Lady Hanmer presented well-deserved awards. This year we introduced a new award in memory of Mrs Lisa Owens, our friend and colleague. Throughout her time here, Mrs Owens showed incredible strength and determination. She was an inspiration to us all and her resilience will continue to motivate us, and her memory will be forever cherished. It was a special moment that we honoured Kacey Owens, with the Lisa Owens Resilience Award.

Our last week promises more fun adventures with the Year 4 and 5 residential trip to Nant BH and a line of honour for our Year 6 leavers!

Have a good weekend

Warm wishes

End of term disco!

What a fantastic time we all had! We are still getting the glitter out of our hair!

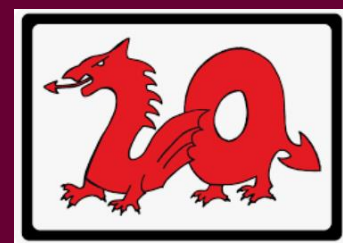

A brilliant netball session, parents' vs children!

A huge thank you to all the parents who volunteered and donated towards the disco! Total money raised will be announced next week!

Well Being Day

The children had a jam-packed Tuesday filled with fun activities like a cricket workshop, smoothie making, tennis, and more! They even created clay hearts, well-being posters, and did some coding, before finishing off with a colourful colour run!

We ended the week on a high note with the final "Know Your Church" workshop of the year! We're so grateful for our strong relationship with St Chad's Church and the Mother's Union. The children participated in engaging activities about baptisms and Christian symbols. For a special treat, the Year 5/6 students got to climb the bell tower and were rewarded with a stunning view! The children expressed their appreciation by making beautiful cards for the Mother's Union.
